English Classics

- Steak and Mushroom Pie $9.95
Choice, tender cuts of beef, simmered in gravy, mushrooms, and herbs. Topped off with puff pastry. Served with mashed potatoes and baked beans. Delicious!
- Banger in Baguette $6.50
A banger is an English sausage, so called because of the noise it makes in the skillet! Served on a French roll with Colman's mustard and caramelized onions. Served with Fries.
- Classic Fish and Chips $9.95
Fresh cod, dipped in homemade beer batter, served in newspaper with chips (fries), and Salt n' Vinegar.
- Shepherd's Pie $9.95
Served in just about every pub in the British Isles! Our version has spiced ground beef browned and topped with mashed potatoes. Served with fresh sauteed vegetables and baked beans.
- Bangers and Mash $9.95
Another classic British comfort food dish. Two English sausages, mashed potatoes, baked beans, and rich onion gravy.
- Chicken Curry $9.95
Showing our colonial roots here. Indian food has for many centuries been part of our food culture. Served with pappadoms. Pappadoms are Indian tortillas. You choice of mild, medium, or "Burn your bum".
- Chicken Tikka Masala $9.95
Another colonial favourite. Marinated chicken, cooked in a creamy yogurt sauce and Indian spices. Bloody Marvelous! Recently voted by Brits as their No. 1 dish.
- Old Compton Street Pasta $8.95
Old Compton Street in Soho, the heart of London, is well known as "Little Italy". The owner's mother was raised on this street. This dish consists of penne pasta with mushrooms, mozzarella, tomatoes, and a fresh Thyme cream sauce. With chicken add $2.00
- Plonker's Pasta $8.95
Penne pasta, tossed in a smoked Gouda cream sauce, with Prosciutto ham and spinach. Topped with fresh Parmesan cheese. Served with a warm baguette.
