PREPARE FOR A CELEBRATION TWENTY-FIVE YEARS IN THE MAKING, ADDISON'S KABOOM TOWN! JULY 3, 2010

For a quarter of a century, one of the country's top fireworks displays has lit up the Texas sky every July 3rd as Addison, Texas, hosts Kaboom Town! While Addison (at only 4.4 square miles) is home to 15,000 residents, every July 3 over 400,000 guests from across the Southwest come to celebrate American Independence in a style that is uniquely Addison. The traditional celebration features old-fashioned family picnic games, food, and live music including the Dallas Wind Symphony. Plus, all await the special fly-over of historic airplanes presented by the Cavanaugh Flight Museum, and of course, the fireworks. Afterwards, attendees are invited to celebrate the past twenty-five years with a free showing of the 1980's cult film favorite Ferris Bueller's Day Off (PG) while area traffic calms.

Kaboom Town! is a perennial part of every top national fireworks display list. The spectacular show was again named one of the top 10 fireworks displays in the country by the American Pyrotechnics Association in 2009. USA Today has repeatedly named it as one of the top 10 shows in the U.S.A. (most recently in 2009) and in 1999 it was rated as one of the top 25 shows in the country by the Wall Street Journal. Publications around the world, including Travel + Leisure, regularly laud and recommend Kaboom Town! as an amazing experience.
