LOCAL YOUTH ENTERTAINERS TO HEADLINE AT ADDISON'S KABOOM TOWN!®

Winners of Taste Addison contest to perform July 3rd for Independence Day crowds

The fireworks won't be the only explosive thing at this year's Kaboom Town!® celebration at Addison Circle Park on July 3. Guests onsite for the legendary fireworks show will enjoy the electrifying talent of three diverse musical groups as they headline from the Bud Light Main Stage. The Mojo Tedder Band, Maeghan Wright and the JWalkers earned the opportunity to perform at Kaboom Town!® because of their exceptional performances at the Texas Music Project's Lone Starz Rising Young Talent competition at Taste Addison in May of this year.

The Mojo Tedder Band – Led by 12-year old Matthew “Mojo” Tedder, the Mojo Tedder Band showcases the amazing blues guitar strength of Weatherford's Matthew Tedder, a guitar prodigy since the age of 8. Tedder's amazing musicality and on-stage maturity has struck musicians, reviews and fans. Hear Matthew's guitar prowess at <http://www.ourstage.com/fanclub/mojotedder>.

Maeghan Wright – 19-year old Maeghan Wright is a freshman at Collin College, and a rising R&B songwriter. This Plano talent started playing piano at age 4, and began writing her own songs at 14. Hear Maeghan's latest music at www.myspace.com/maeganwright.

The JWalkers -- Since 2005, this alternative-blues-rock inspired group has brought a fresh sound to both Christian and mainstream venues. With their signature fiddle sound and soulful vocals, they've received accolades alongside much more seasoned musicians. Hear their latest music at <http://www.myspace.com/thejwalkersband>.
