Entertainment Release:

“EINZ, ZWEI, DREI!” ADDISON OKTOBERFEST TOASTS 20 YEARS WITH AUTHENTIC GERMAN MUSIC AND MORE, SEPTEMBER 20-23 -- ADDISON CIRCLE PARK

Gates open Thursday, September 20, at 5 p.m., and festivities begin as Addison Oktoberfest celebrates 20 years as one of the largest and most authentic Oktoberfests outside of the famed Munich celebration. Visitors can experience four days of genuine German music and folk dancing on two stages, German foods, beverages, and crafts along with special anniversary celebratory activities in the state-of-the-art outdoor event venue, Addison Circle Park. Families will find special entertainment for children at the stage in Das Kinder Tent, and attendees of all ages will dance and have fun inside “Schloss Addison,” the 30,000 square foot air conditioned tent, or at the Bowl Stage.

Authentic Bavarian entertainment includes:

The Munich Evergreens, a group of seven talented German musicians, have been flown in from Germany for 18 of the 20 Addison Oktoberfest celebrations. This very popular group will entertain and lure you to the dance floor in the main “Schloss Addison” tent to dance the night away in with their enthusiastic renditions of fun-filled German music.

At every Addison Oktoberfest, the popular Texanischer Schuhplattler Verein dance group, dressed in traditional Bavarian costumes, has skillfully executed authentic shoe-slapping dances at Addison Oktoberfest. Not only have they been dancing at Oktoberfest for 20 years, but a number of the dance group members provided assistance with the development of the initial Oktoberfest in 1987.
