For Immediate Release:

HULA, POLKA AND CHA CHA YOUR WAY AROUND THE WORLD AT THE 2009 WORLD FEST, OCTOBER 24 – 25 AT ADDISON CIRCLE PARK

The Town of Addison and the World Affairs Council of Dallas/Fort Worth have partnered to bring some of the most exciting and authentic international entertainment to North Texas with the 2009 WorldFest. With six stages and two-days full of back-to-back entertainment, there is sure to be something for everyone! On October 24 and 25, in Addison Circle Park, WorldFest visitors will immerse themselves in the cultures of Africa, the Americas, Asia, Europe and Oceania while enjoying fantastic entertainment from each of these regions.

Chinese Acrobats of Hebei

Acrobats of Hebei, China bring their gravity-defying stunts and incredible acrobatics to America in this must see production. The multi-talented troupe features daring maneuvers of Chinese poles, incredible hand balance, exciting chair stacking, unbelievable strength demonstrations, martial arts, and much more in this spectacular production. The Chinese Acrobats of Hebei perform Saturday, October 24 at 9:00 pm on the Main Stage.

45-Member Turkish Folk Dance Group

This world champion folk dance group travels from Turkey to show WorldFest patrons an exciting display of traditional Turkish folk dancing in traditional, vibrantly colored regalia. The Turkish Folk Dancers will perform daily on the Main Stage and the Bowl Stage.

Pianist Abbas Abboud and Ambassador Francis Dubois

Following a family tragedy in Iraq, the up-and-coming young artist, Abbas Abboud, was granted asylum in the U.S. He is a graduate from the renowned Conservatoire Nationale de Paris. Ambassador Dubois, who played a role in the pianist's history, will join him after the performance to talk about Abboud's moving story of tragedy and hope. Guests can see Abbas Aboud and Ambassador Francis Dubois in the Addison Conference Centre on Saturday, October 24.

WORLDFEST 2009 ENTERTAINMENT RELEASE – ADD 1

The Killdares

Originally formed in 1996, The Killdares have come to be known as one of the hottest, cutting-edge bands in music today—Celtic or otherwise. World-class musicians from all over the U.S., they have come together in Texas to create and perform a brand-new version of hard-driving, alternative Celtic rock music. The Killdares perform Saturday, October 24 at 6:00 pm on the Main Stage.

Brave Combo

Living up to their name, Brave Combo is unafraid to take musical chances, eager to "go where no band has gone before." First surfacing in Denton, Texas back in 1979, Brave Combo keeps on breaking stylistic barriers with a unique blend of domestic and exotic dance rhythms that Billboard magazine calls, "World-wide, unclassified music." The quintet has perfected a world music mix that includes salsa, meringue, rock, cumbia, conjunto, polka, zydeco, classical, cha cha, the blues and more. They are America's premier dance band and a rollicking, rocking, rhythmic global journey. If you like world music with multi-ethnic rhythms and styles, you'll love Brave Combo as they dish it up. Brave Combo performs Sunday, October 25 at 5:00 pm on the Main Stage.

The Australian Outback Show

Australian natives entertain and educate audience members with traditional, aboriginal customs and activities along with animals from the Outback. Fun activities even include making your own boomerang! The Australian Outback Show runs throughout both days of the event on the Oceania Stage.

The Crow Collection of Asian Art Jade Exhibition

Visitors will also see beautiful jade pieces from the Crow Collection of Asian Art. The exhibition presents a special selection from the museum's renowned jade collection. Long noted for its craftsmanship, impressive artistic styles and comprehensive nature, this collection of the "stone of heaven" ranks among the highlights of the museum's holdings.

Mariachi Competition

The WorldFest Mariachi Competition is presented in partnership with the Consulate General of Mexico and will be hosted by WFAA's Cynthia Izaguirre. Professional and student Mariachi groups will whisk WorldFest patrons away to the streets of Latin America with the sounds of trumpets, violins and traditional Mariachi guitars. The region's top Mariachi groups will compete for cash prizes and the opportunity to perform on stage Sunday, October 25, with famous songstress Veronica Roblés.

DALLAS Film Society

Sample cinema from all over the world with the International Short Film Showcase presented by the DALLAS Film Society.
